

LESSON 1 • LEKCIJA 1

Serbian greetings and introductions

Pozdravi i upoznavanje

Today: greet someone, exchange names, and say you are learning Serbian.

What words can you hear?

Ana: Zdravo! Ja sam Ana. Kako se zoveš?

Emi: Zdravo! Ja sam Emi. Drago mi je.

Listen once without reading. Recognizing even one word is a good start.

The whole conversation

Ana: Zdravo! Ja sam Ana. Kako se zoveš?

Hi! I'm Ana. What's your name?

Emi: Zdravo! Ja sam Emi. Drago mi je.

Hi! I'm Emmy. Nice to meet you.

Ana: Drago mi je. Učiš srpski?

Nice to meet you. Are you learning Serbian?

Emi: Da, učim srpski. Malo!

Yes, I'm learning Serbian. A little!

Three essential moves

Zdravo!

Hi! / Hello!
Здраво!

Ja sam ...

I am ...
Ja sam ...

Kako se
zoveš?

What's your name?
Како се зовеш?

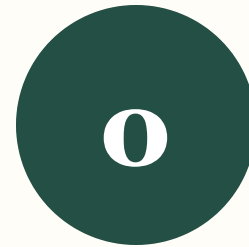

Nice to meet you

Drago mi je.

Драго ми је.

Learn it as one useful phrase. We will explain its grammar later.

Five steady vowel sounds

Keep each vowel short and pure: Ana · Emi · dobro · učim

Listen → pause → repeat. Avoid turning one vowel into two sounds.

Two special sounds today

j = English y

ja · je

Drago mi je

r = tap or roll

An approximation is fine today.

Keep speaking.

A small pattern

Person	Serbian	English
ja	ja sam	I am
ti	ti si	you are — informal singular

No full verb table today. First, make the useful phrases automatic.

Your turn

Zdravo! Ja sam _____.

Kako se zoveš?

Drago mi je.

Switch roles. Then try once without looking.

A family gathering

1. Greet one person.
2. Exchange names.
3. Say: Učim srpski. Malo!
4. Say: Vidimo se!

Учим српски. Мало! · Видимо се!

Five nearly free letters

A = A

E = E

O = O

J = J

M = M

Ja cam

Can you read it?

Try it without notes

- Say hello.
- Introduce yourself.
- Ask my name.
- Say you are learning Serbian.
- Say goodbye.

Bravo! You have completed your first Serbian conversation.
