

LESSON 2 · LEKCIJA 2

How are you?

Kako si? · Kako си?

Today: ask, answer, and choose informal ti or polite Vi.

Your first conversation

- Say hello.
- Introduce yourself.
- Ask my name.
- Say "Nice to meet you."
- Say you are learning Serbian.

Two friends

Mila: Zdravo, Emi! Kako si?

Hi, Emmy! How are you?

Emi: Dobro sam, hvala. A ti?

I'm well, thanks. And you?

Mila: Odlično sam!

I'm great!

A polite exchange

Emi: Dobar dan, gospođo Petrović. Kako ste?

Gđa Petrović: Dobro sam, hvala. A Vi?

Emi: I ja sam dobro.

Notice: ste / Vi replace si / ti.

How are you today?

Odlično sam.

I'm great.

Dobro sam.

I'm well.

Nije loše.

Not bad.

Umorna / Umoran
sam.

I'm tired.

Kako si danas?

ti or Vi?

Informal: one person	Polite or plural
Kako si ?	Kako ste ?
A ti ?	A Vi ?
friend, close relative, child	unfamiliar adult, formal setting, two+ people

firmer: čaj · odlično

ć

softer: ćao · kuća

Listen. Imitate. Keep talking—even before the contrast is perfect.

dž and đ

dž

firmer: džem

đ

softer: gospođa · Đorđe

Ask → answer → return

Kako si?

Dobro sam, hvala. A ti?

Change both the person and the answer.

Three situations

1. A close friend arrives.
2. You meet an older relative for the first time.
3. You greet two cousins together.

Choose si/ti or ste/Vi before you begin.

Try without notes

- Greet me.
- Ask how I am.
- Answer my question.
- Return it correctly.
- Say goodbye.

Odlično! You can now extend your Serbian greeting.
