

LESSON 2 · LEKCIJA 2

How are you?

Kako si?

Today: ask, answer, and choose informal ti or polite Vi.

QUICK REVIEW

Your first conversation

- Say hello.
- Introduce yourself.
- Ask my name.
- Say "Nice to meet you."
- Say you are learning Serbian.

LISTEN

Two friends

Mila: Zdravo, Emi! Kako si?

Hi, Emmy! How are you?

Emi: Dobro sam, hvala. A ti?

I'm well, thanks. And you?

Mila: Odlično sam!

I'm great!

LISTEN

A polite exchange

Emi: Dobar dan, gospođo Petrović. Kako ste?

Gđa Petrović: Dobro sam, hvala. A Vi?

Emi: I ja sam dobro.

Notice: ste / Vi replace si / ti.

How are you today?

Odlično sam.

I'm great.

Dobro sam.

I'm well.

Nije loše.

Not bad.

Umorna / Umoran
sam.

I'm tired.

Kako si danas?

SOCIAL CHOICE

ti or Vi?

Informal: one person	Polite or plural
Kako si ?	Kako ste ?
A ti ?	A Vi ?
friend, close relative, child	unfamiliar adult, formal setting, two+ people

PRONUNCIATION

č and ć

firmer: čaj · odlično

softer: ćao · kuća

The Cyrillic spellings ч/ћ are previews, not decoding targets today.

PRONUNCIATION

dž and đ

firmer: džem

softer: gospođa · Đorđe

The Cyrillic spellings ђ/ђ are previews. Hear and say the sounds first.

CYRILLIC BRIDGE

Seven new letters

К = K

С = S

И = I

Т = T

Х = H

В = V

Л = L

Watch the look-alikes: Cyrillic С sounds like Latin S; Cyrillic В sounds like Latin V.

SUPPORTED DECODING

Read language you know

Како си? · Kako si?

А ти? · A ti?

Хвала. · Hvala.

Point to each letter. Meaning first; speed later.

CONVERSATION PATTERN

Ask → answer → return

Kako si?

Dobro sam, hvala. A ti?

Change both the person and the answer.

ROLE-PLAY

Three situations

1. A close friend arrives.
2. You meet an older relative for the first time.
3. You greet two cousins together.

Choose si/ti or ste/Vi before you begin.

READING

A quick call

Mila zove Emi. Emi je kod kuće.

„Zdravo! Kako si?” pita Mila.

„Umorna sam, ali dobro sam,” kaže Emi.

Mila kaže: „I ja sam umorna!”

zove = calls · ali = but · pita = asks

DISCUSSION

Talk about the reading

- Who calls whom?
- How does Emi feel? How does Mila feel?
- Why might they be tired?
- What would your true answer be today?

Use Serbian where you can; use English where you need it. Then retell the call.

EXIT CHECK

Try without notes

- Greet me.
- Ask how I am.
- Answer my question.
- Return it correctly.
- Say goodbye.

Odlično! You can now extend your Serbian greeting.
